

Configurações dos Smartphones Redmi Note 11

1. Após ligar o celular pela primeira vez, conecte o aparelho à Internet (em rede Wi-Fi ou chip), deixe ligado por, pelo menos, 15 minutos e reinicie;
2. Ao reiniciar, será exibida a tela abaixo; entre na opção “Wipe Data”
Obs: a navegação é realizada com as teclas de volume+ (para cima), volume- (para baixo) e power (para confirmar).

3. Vá na opção “Wipe All Data”:

4. Escolha a opção “Confirm”:

5. Aguarde o progresso da operação:

6. Vá na opção “Back to Main Menu”:

7. Escolha a opção “Reboot”:

8. Escolha a opção “Reboot do System”:

9. Clique no símbolo **“>”:

10. Escolha Português (Brasil):

11. Escolha Brasil:

12. Aceite os termos e clique para avançar:

13. Caso o celular não tenha chip, clique em “Pular etapa” e depois clique para avançar:

14. Conecte a uma rede Wi-Fi, caso o celular não tenha chip com internet e clique para avançar:

15. Clique em Próximo:

16. Clique em Aceitar e continuar:

17. Clique em Próximo:

18. Clique em Mais e depois em Aceitar:

19. Caso seja exibida a tela abaixo, apenas clique no botão para voltar e continue normalmente o processo de configuração:

20. Aguarde:

21. Clique em Instalar e depois em Pronto:

22. Clique em Configurar:

23. Clique em Iniciar, aceite os termos e clique em Aceitar:

24. Habilite o Acesso aos dados de uso:

25. Clique em Permitir acesso ao uso:

26. Aceite os termos e clique em OK.

27. Habilite a opção Otimização de bateria:

28. Clique em Nenhuma restrição:

29. Habilite a opção Alterar configurações do sistema:

30. Habilite Permitir modificação de config...:

31. Certifique-se de que as três permissões estão habilitadas, conforme foto abaixo, e clique em Continuar:

32. Clique em Concluir:

33. Clique em Mais e depois em Aceitar:

34. Clique em Concluído:

35. Seu dispositivo está pronto para uso.

